

CRACKING SHOOT BY MARK

At one time the Egg Shoot was on the Social calendar of events, but now it is one of the most cherished prizes to be won in the competition programme. It also gives Members the opportunity to get their favourite accuracy rifles out of hibernation and shake the cobwebs out. (Although the preceding week had seen a lot of practice taking place on the 200 range.)

Sleet and high winds had been forecast so it was a relief to the 23 brave souls when it stayed dry, but a bitterly cold wind made it uncomfortable.

The course of fire was five sighting shots then one shot at a hens egg,

The eight finalists

Eight succeeded in hitting an egg and got through to round two. This was shooting at a "Smartie" selotaped to white paper. One sighter then one shot to count.

No one managed a hit and it was decided by the closest to the smartie. The winner was Mark with Dave second
