Christmas Fun Shoot

We raised £165.00 for the Royal British Legion so many thanks to all who took part.

The Competition Officer is delighted that at long last:

- a. He won something
- b. He beat his son on a speed shoot.

We hope you all enjoyed the morning, with thanks to Steve who supplied the mince pies.

The Carrot Shoot

Cheer up Bob – You Won!

The shooter with the smallest piece of carrot on the wire wins. People who decided to have “just one more shot” at the carrot only to see it disappear in a blaze of orange were too many to count.

1. Bob P
2. Jim S
3. Allan B
4. Peter K

The Mini McQueens

1. Nigel W 46
2. Peter K 40
3. Mikey K 32

Board Cutting

The smallest number of rounds to cut the ridiculously wide 80mm board in two:

1. Keith M 50
2. Rob F 80
- 2 Allan B 80
- 4 Bob P 92

Plates and Pins

Tim was disappointed that Jim wouldn't let him use his shotgun with birdshot on the plates and bowling pins, just as Jim was miffed that he couldn't shoot the plates and bowling pins at 10 yards!

Twelve steel plates, 9 bowling pins and six bobbins to knock down in the shortest time with unlimited ammo; Bob shot five magazines worth of ammo and still left two bobbins standing on the speed shoot.

1. Nigel W 1 min 01 secs
2. James P 1 min 06 secs
3. Keith M 1 min 10 secs
4. Jim S 1 min 14 secs
5. Tim M 1 min 20 secs

There was plenty of advice (barracking)

Jim led for a while

Linsey started well but got tired

Then James crushed him!
