Man V Man 2016

14 August

As usual there were many competitors for another competition not using paper targets!

The competition was shot on a knock out, fastest person to down all five plates plus the stop plate on a best of three runs went forward to the next round.

Quite a few needed all three runs to decide who went forward, with some very fast runs shot. Surprisingly there were very few additions to be made to the Book of Excuses and nobody had too many jams.

A close call and well done to Phil for winning.
